

ADVANCED PLANNING

Life Insurance for Foreign Nationals

This market is clearly growing. A significant number of foreign-born residents are becoming U.S. citizens, and many are starting businesses and purchasing real estate in the U.S. Many are also purchasing life insurance in the U.S. or would like to. As they come to live or work here, they bring their unique financial challenges along with new opportunities for life insurance.

In the foreign nationals market, we focus on two groups:

- Resident aliens
- Non-resident aliens
